

Recycling at Nonresidential Properties in Fairfax County

ALL nonresidential properties in Fairfax County MUST recycle mixed paper and cardboard. Recyclables should be empty and clean; no food or soiled materials.

Printed on recycled paper

Recycling YES

Plastic bottles & jugs ONLY:
Check for the neck!

Metal food containers

Pill bottles

Junk mail, magazines,
mixed paper and catalogs

Flattened cardboard

Glass bottles and jars

Soda bottles & cans

Newspapers

Phone books

Cereal and cracker boxes

Recycling NO

Hard back books

Paper plates & napkins

Lids, caps, tops

Prescription
vials

Ceramics

Pots & pans

Lightbulbs

Yogurt and dairy tubs

Plastic bags

Styrofoam packaging

Foam take-out containers

Aluminum foil & trays

Plastic food boxes or trays

Pizza boxes

Call your property manager for more information. To learn more about recycling, visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/recycling